MARINE INSURANCE NOTES.

STEAMERS REFLOATED.

Our Marine Insurance Correspondent writes: Two steamers which have figured in the reinsurance market have been refloated. These are the Munamar, ashore at Gorda Cay, Abaco, on which 12gs was quoted, and the Huronic ashore in Lake Superior, on which the last quotation was 10gs per cent. The City of Montreal, one of the Canada S.S. Line's fleet, ashore in the St. Lawrence since Aug. 15, was also refloated, but had to be beached, while a later report states that she is afloat again, but held against a reef by a strong current.

A Dutch dredger, No. 10, owner by Messrs. Ackerman Van Haaren, which was being taken to La Bougie to replace the dredger La Manche, sunk on Aug. 1, is reported to have sunk off Cape Cardon during a gale.

The Misaki Maru No. 5, reported ashore and leaking badly at Pinnacle Island is a vessel of 3.247 tons gross, built in 1891, and owned by Mr. Matsuura Shizuo. She was the fourth Japanese steamer reported ashore last week.
